PROSEP AWARDED $1.2 MILLION (U.S.) CONTRACT
- Expands to new markets and grows sales backlog to $30 million -

MONTREAL, QUEBEC – November 17, 2008 - ProSep Inc. (TSX: PRP), dedicated to providing process solutions to the oil and gas industry, announced today that it has been awarded a $1.2 million (U.S.) contract to provide a double-ended, single-stage desalter that removes salt from crude oil to Hunt Refining, a petroleum refining and marketing company headquartered in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

“Consistent with our recent outlook, ProSep is not experiencing any softening of demand for our process solutions despite the current volatility in the oil and gas industry,” said Jacques L. Drouin, President and CEO of Prosep Inc. “In fact, today’s contract win announcement illustrates how we are broadening our reach to new markets and new customers.”

The Company is expected to deliver the desalting system by December, 2009. The single-stage desalter will treat up to 32,000 of barrels of oil per day prior to refining.

With this contract win, ProSep's current sales backlog totals approximately $30 million.
